RUSSIAN RETREAT MAY BE TO HARBIN

This is Three Hundred Miles From Kuropatkin's Army.

Czar Decrees the Mobilization of More Troops---
A Naval Battle Will Likely Occur
Very Soon.

London, Mar. 16.—It now seems inevitable that Gen. Kuropatkin must continue his retreat three hundred miles to Harbin.

The chief towns on the way which offer defensive possibilities are Kailuan, twenty-five miles north of Tieling, and Vinyungangao, fifteen miles north of Kailuan, and Kungling, thirty miles north of Vinyungangao.

More Troops Wanted.

London, Mar. 16.—A telegram from St. Petersburg, states that the czar has signed a decree for the mobilization of more troops, affecting the military districts of Warsaw, Moscow, Kiev and Kasan.

Official Notice Here.

Washington, Mar. 16.—Japanese Minister Takahira this morning received official advice announcing the occupation of Tieling and Tieling, the former this morning and the latter Monday. The state department has also received similar advice from Minister Griscom of Tokyo.

Pressing Russians Everywhere.

London, Mar. 16.—It is reported here that the Japanese have captured Tieling. Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, has made public the following: "Our advanced troops are pressing against the enemy everywhere. We occupied Tieling Thursday morning."

Evacuate Tie Pass.

St. Petersburg, Mar. 16.—It is reported that Tie Pass has been evacuated by Gen. Kuropatkin's army.

Gripenberg Acquitted.

St. Petersburg, Mar. 16.—The council of war has decided that Gen. Gripenberg's action during fighting on the Shakhe river was perfectly justifiable. Gripenberg was commander of the Second Manchurian army. He was accused by Kuropatkin of exceeding his orders in pushing beyond Sandun and becoming involved in an engagement in which the Russians lost heavily.

Jollies His Soldiers.

Tokio, Mar. 16.—The mikado has sent a message to the Japanese army in Manchuria congratulating the troops upon the victories and thanking them for the service performed. The emperor urges the armies to even greater exertions in the future.

Entered at Midnight.

New Chung, Mar. 16.—The Japanese occupied Tie Pass Wednesday midnight.

More Flanking.

St. Petersburg, Mar. 16.—Flanking tactics by the Japanese apparently are in progress again. General Mischenko on March 14 engaged Japanese forces on the Russian right. It is possible the attacking force was a Japanese column which disappeared from observation during the battle of Mukden. The Japanese do not appear to have renewed the frontal attack up to yesterday, the demonstration Tuesday having shown that the Russians were prepared to make a determined resistance.

The office of censor has already been removed to Santai, eight miles north of Tie Pass, and there are intimations that it may soon be established even farther north.

22 Jap Vessels Sighted.

London, March 16.—A dispatch to Lloyd's dated Singapore, 6 p. m., says the British steamer Hongkong reports having passed 22 Japanese warships off Horsburgh, 20 miles east of Singapore at the entrance to the Straits of Malacca.

Naval Battle Soon.

London, March 16.—The appearance of Togo's fleet in the track that would be used in an attempt by Rodzestvensky to make for Vladivostok is the most interesting news of the day. According to the Mail's correspondent at Singapore, who visited the fleet, the officers were uncommunicative.

Two Japanese officers landed and conferred with the Japanese consul and it was understood by the correspondent that the squadron would shortly sail again. The presumption here is that Togo acquired some information concerning Rodzestvensky's intended movements. As far as known in London Rodzestvensky's squadron is still off the coast of Madagascar, but as the ice in the harbor is beginning to give, the Russian admiral must soon make a dash for Vladivostok or return to Russia.

Little Heard From Tuesday.

Chicago, March 16.—Little cable direct from Yinkow Tuesday to the Chicago News. He said he had been captured by the Japanese and was being taken to Kobe. The cablegram stated that the message was from Little personally and that he was alive and well. Yinkow is a seaport of New Chung and is a place where little would naturally be taken en route to Japan.

Loan Will Be Negotiated.

St. Petersburg, Mar. 16.—At the ministry of finance it was said today that the negotiations for a new Russian loan of $125,000,000 in France are expected to be concluded and signed in Paris in ten days. The representatives of the Credit Lyonnais and Banque de Paris & des Pays Bas who have been here in connection with the negotiations left St. Petersburg yesterday. It is pointed out, however, that this does not mean that the negotiations are broken off, the same procedure having been observed in the case of $160,000,000 loan last spring, when, after the negotiations at St. Petersburg, the representatives returned to Paris, where the contract was signed within a fortnight.

Hard On Correspondents.

Santonpu, Mar. 16.—A sanguinary combat occurred March 14 on the center advanced line of the Russian army eight miles south of Tie Pass. The Russians repulsed the attack and even made a small advance through a thousand corpses of Japanese, and advanced a large force on the right flank, where Gen. Mischenko, who has taken command of his detachment, is holding the Japanese in check.

It is declared that the newspaper correspondents practically have been starved out of Tie Pass. This may perhaps be an indication of the amount of food available for the army, immense quantities of which were destroyed at Mukden, where practically the entire reserve commissariat had been accumulated. The rumor of the murder of eighty foreigners, including Richard H. Little, correspondent of the Chicago News at Mukden, is hoped and believed here to be unfounded. It is assumed that they may have been captured by the Japanese as it has already been reported that the French correspondent named Nadeu is in the hands of the Japanese.

According to the Chicago reports the governor of Mukden gave a banquet in honor of the Japanese generals after their triumphal entry into the city, and a Russian journalist wires that with the occupation of Mukden by the Japanese, Russia's prestige with the Chinese has been utterly destroyed. The correspondent says that this is already noticeable and that even a triumphant victory would not restore Russia to her place in the estimation of the Chinese which she held a year ago.

It is rumored that the order for another general mobilization is being prepared and that a new army will be forwarded to Manchuria as fast as possible.

JAMES HUBBARD LOSES BOTH LEGS

Well Known Switchman Badly Hurled Today.

Caught His Toe In the Car Step and Fell to the Ground On His Face.

MAY RECOVER FROM INJURY.

James Hubbard, a well-known switchman for the N. C. & St. L., and popularly known as "Red," met with a deplorable accident this morning about 9 o'clock near Tenth and Norton streets, which will make him a cripple for life, if it does not cost him his life. He was run over by a freight car and both legs so badly mangled near the ankles that they had to be amputated just below the knees.

Hubbard is a switchman employed in the Paducah yards of the N. C. & St. L. road, and about 9 o'clock this morning was working with engine No. 316, Engineer Mike Galvin. "Kicking" a string of box cars into a siding. The engine had made the kick and the cars were well into the siding when Hubbard fell. The switchman had succeeded in slowing up the cars, had set the brake and was preparing to descend when his foot caught. The cars were still rolling and he fell in such a position as to throw his feet over the rail before he could arise, being stunned by the force of the fall, the wheels had passed over his lower limbs and cut them off.

Hubbard was picked up by the engine crew and friends who witnessed the accident and carried to his home, 923 South Eleventh street, just a block from the place the accident happened, and physicians were summoned. Drs. Reddick, Sory, Taylor, Coleman and Boyd responded and an investigation showed the limbs cut in two just above the ankle and the flesh so horribly mangled that amputation just below the knees was necessary. The patient was placed under the influence of chloroform and the operation successfully performed.

Hubbard stood the operation well and was conscious at 11 o'clock, telling a newspaper reporter how the accident happened. He stated he tried to climb down the ladder on the car when his toe caught in one rung and threw him off his balance. He fell on his face and knew no more until he was brought home and placed in bed.

The physicians say he has a good chance to recover, but cannot tell at present. Hubbard is a married man and has many friends here who will regret very much to learn of the accident.

ITALY TO FORTIFY

Her Border—Another War Cloud
May Arise.

Vienna, March 16.—The report from Rome that the Italian war ministry proposed to ask the deputies for $10,000,000 to fortify eastern and northern frontiers of Italy was reiterated today and caused considerable comment in Vienna, where it was taken as evidence of Italy's growing distrust of Austria and was characterized as an indirect result of the weakening of the Russian power in the Far East and the consequent loss of Russian influence in the Balkan peninsula. A foreign office official said:

"Austria regretfully observes this manifestation of Italy's distrust of Austrian purposes, but if Italy finds satisfaction in spending large sums in fortifying her frontier with the result of increasing Italy's sense of security and lessening chances of mutual misunderstanding and friction the step will not be without advantage to both powers."

BODY OF INFANT IN A COAL HOUSE

Detective Moore May Have Unearthed Sensation.

The Child Was Prematurely Born—
Coroner Crow Will Hold an Inquest.

ALL THE FACTS TO COME OUT.

The Paducah police department is investigating a revolting case. Yesterday Detective T. J. Moore was informed of the alleged burial of the corpse of an infant in a North Side coal house. He went to work and found the body, which was of a prematurely born infant.

As near as could be learned without official investigation, the mother, who is single, lives on North Ninth street, and after the child was born two other persons living in the same house wrapped the body in cotton, took it to the coal house and buried it. The father has left the city, it is understood.

When Detective Moore questioned the woman, she claimed that she had injured herself and a local doctor gave her medicine, and the child was born shortly afterwards. The doctor denies even ever having seen the woman.

The remains of the child were taken to the Paducah undertaking parlors today, and Coroner Crow, as soon as possible, probably this afternoon, will hold an inquest. It is possible that warrants will be issued.

Two felonies may have been committed, one concealing the birth of an illegitimate child, and the other performing a criminal operation. It may later develop, however, that there is nothing in the case. Coroner Crow this afternoon hurried the body in the county graveyard, and may decide there is not enough in the case to warrant an inquest.

NESSEE CONTEST.

Nashville, Tenn., March 16.—Gov. James H. Frazier was yesterday afternoon nominated by acclamation in the joint Democratic caucus for United States senator to succeed the late General W. B. Bate. The nomination is equivalent to an election. Gov. Frazier has served two months of his second term as governor of Tennessee. He will be succeeded as governor by John I. Cox, speaker of the senate.

London, Mar. 16.—Marconi, the wireless telegraphy wizard, was married today to Hon. Beatrice O'Brien, sister of Lord Inchiquin. The bride's presents are valued at a hundred thousand dollars.

Jefferson City, Mo., March 16.—With the expiration of the time limit yesterday during which the Niederrhein Republicans agreed to vote break the deadlock over the situation Judge Spencer in an effort to break the deadlock over the selection of a United States senator, the legislators at the joint session is even more tangled than at any time since the first joint ballot.

Shot By Sentinels.

Vancouver Barracks, Wash., Mar. 16.—Lieutenant Francis Hoone, whose conviction by court martial was made public yesterday, made a desperate attempt to escape from the barracks and was shot by sentinels. Two serious, though not necessarily fatal, wounds were inflicted.

NAN PATTERSON CASE.

The Show Girl Will Be Tried April
10, For Murder.

New York, Mar. 16.—Nan Patterson will be put on trial once more to answer a charge of murdering Caesar Young, the wealthy bookmaker. This decision was reached today and it was announced at the district attorney's office that the second trial of the case would begin April 10. One jury which was selected to try her on the charge of murder, was discharged after the case was completed because of the severe illness of one of its members. Another jury which heard the case was unable to agree. Numerous attempts to secure her release on bail since the last trial have failed.

DISFIGURES TAIL.

Cuts Piece Out of Skirt on Which Rested Bible Kissed by President.

Washington, March 16.—It leaked out today that the table on which lay the Bible which President Roosevelt kissed on inauguration day was disfigured after the oath was administered by a member of the diplomatic corps, who stepped up to it, drew a knife and cut out of it a piece half an inch long, an inch thick and four inches long, which he proposed to keep as a souvenir. All of the presidents since Buchanan kissed Bibles which rested on this old mahogany lot of furniture.

As foreign diplomats are immune from arrest, the police have found it impossible to act.

Finger Cut.

Paddy Meyers, an employee of the Michael collar shop, had a finger on his right hand cut almost off today. Dr. D. T. Stuart attended him.

MORE LANDSLIDES IN CALIFORNIA

Nine Passenger Trains Blocked in the Mountains.

Traffic Suspended or Delayed and the Storm Is Not Yet Over.

A WATER SPOUT IN TEXAS

San Bernardino, Cal., Mar. 16.—Another landslide on the Canyon Pass line of the Santa Fe railway last night has tied up, in the mountains, nine passenger trains. The storm is still raging in the mountains with a heavy rainfall and strong winds.

Santa Barbara Isolated.

Los Angeles, Mar. 16.—Additional landslides on the coast and Tehachapi routes, of the Southern Pacific, will cause a blockade of traffic to San Francisco for several days. Landslides north of Santa Barbara have isolated that city.

A Texas Waterspout.

Austin, Texas, Mar. 16.—A telephone message received here announces that last night there was a terrible waterspout at Lufkin, Hart county, forty miles above this city, causing the water to rise in the river and surrounding creeks at that point fourteen feet in just five minutes, catching half a dozen campers in the bottoms and drowning two of them, four barely escaping with their lives. Considerable stock was swept away, the cattle having gathered for the night in the shelter of ravines. During thirty minutes hail is reported to have fallen to the depth of one and a half inches with such force as to wreck many farm houses in that section. The storm came up without warning.

NEW JUDGE.

Appointed for Federal Court in Southern Illinois.

Chicago, Ill., March 16.—Southern Illinoisans who have watched with much interest the progress and the final passage of the bill providing for a new federal court district in this state will be interested in the following dispatch from Washington, telling of the appointment of a judge for the new eastern district which includes Cairo and all other Southern Illinois cities. Court will be held here and in East St. Louis.

The dispatch says: The new eastern district of the federal court in Illinois, created by the last congress, has been supplied with a judge. The place is given to Judge Francis M. Wright, who has been on the United States court of claims bench for the past two years. Judge Wright was the particular choice of Speaker Cannon but he did not desire. Judge Wright's promotion unless the vacancy thus created should be filled by Fenton W. Booth of Marshall county, Ill. After a conference with Mr. Cannon and Senator Hopkins today, the president agreed to this arrangement and he accordingly sent the two nominations to the senate.

FRANCE MAY ACT

MINISTERS TO CONSIDER THE CABLE COMPANY DISPUTE.

Not Certain What the Matter Is or What Will Be Done.

Paris, March 16.—The government has not yet decided on the line of action to be followed in Venezuela in the conflict between President Castro and the French Cable Co. The question will be discussed at a council of ministers tomorrow.

The Cable company has committed its interests in Venezuela to the care of the French government, which has given assurances that it will afford the company full protection against any arbitrary action.

Neither the foreign office nor the company have received any definite advice from Caracas.

The concession of the French Cable company dates from 1895. The company has spent over $1,200,000, which has not yet yielded a dividend. Lately the operation of the concession has been attended by many petty annoyances. Under the pretext that the company had not fulfilled the terms of its concession President Castro brought the case before a court and secured a verdict against the company, which appealed to a higher court, where it is still pending.

The managers of the company are determined to resist spoliation or other acts detrimental to its large investments and are confident that the French government will afford the company ample protection.

OYSTER TRUST.

One to Be Organized With $10,000-
000 Capital.

New Haven, March 16.—Plans for the organization of a syndicate to control the oyster fisheries of Long Island are nearing completion. In ten days the company will be incorporated with a capital of ten millions.

More Talk About the Electric Railway.

Today's Cairo Bulletin published the following in regard to the talk of Paducah-Cairo electric railway:

New York, Mar. 15.—The Westinghouse Electric Manufacturing company is getting out plans, specifications and estimates for the complete electrical construction and equipment of a new thirty-four mile passenger and freight trolley railroad between Cairo and Paducah. No details of the plans have been given out.

The estimates provide for some- what over five hundred thousand dollars, but no exact figures are quoted, as neither the plans nor estimates of contracts are completed or approved by the parties financing the enterprise.

Wall street reports that Jefferson Read and J. J. Freundlich, chief promoters of the project, are backed by a syndicate of New York and Boston capitalists and investors, who will take the first issue of securities and will finance the road.

Pfaffner, Walker & Co., bankers here, and Gay Bros., of Boston, are said to be at the head of the syndicate.

A Card.

To the Citizens of McCracken County:

I ask the permission of every free-thinking, level-headed citizen in this county to allow me to call your immediate attention, through the press, to some very important matters concerning our county affairs.

At the present time we have quite a large number of candidates for the various offices of McCracken county, and among the many there is one who tells the good people in certain sections of the county, that he deserves credit for aid done by him in building the new branch gravel road, through the section of St. John's neighborhood in 1902. This work was all done by the good taxpaying citizens of this county and not by our little county road supervisor.

The only ones who are entitled to any credit are men and boys of St. John's community who worked at half price, day after day, until said road was completed.

Very respectfully,
W. J. WATSON,
Adrian, Ky.

FATAL ACCIDENT TO BRIDGE MAN NEAR PRINCETON.

Was On a "Clipper" When Overtaken by the Illinois Central Fast Flyer.

Joe Tyson, a bridge man employed by the I. He was riding with an operator named Cook on a railroad "clipper," a three-wheel affair used by inspectors on the road, and failed to get out of the way.

The men were leaving Luzerne mines, between Princeton and Central City, east of Paducah, riding on the "clipper." They heard the train coming and jumped off, jerking the "clipper" after them. Cook got clear of the fast coming train, but Tyson was not so fortunate and was struck. He died instantly. Tyson was a man about 55 years old, and lived at Luzerne. It is understood he leaves a family.

BOARD OF WORKS WANTS NEW ROLLER

Thinks Well of Chicago Firm's Proposition to City.

Street Inspector Ordered to Make Report On Bad Places in the Streets.

THE THIRD STREET PLANS.

The board of works, at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon, decided to purchase a new and modern steam roller for use on the streets. Mr. Adler, of a Chicago concern, offered to sell the city a new roller for $3,250 and take the old roller for $1,000 of it. The board considers the proposition a good one, and will doubtless accept it unless a better one is offered.

City Engineer L. A. Washington wants an assistant for the voluminous work he has to do this spring and summer, and the board of works is in favor of giving it to him. It will recommend it, and the assistant will be named as soon as possible.

Engineer Washington reported that the plans for Third street would not be finished until the latter part of next week, possibly the week following.

Street Inspector Elliott was instructed to ascertain and report all bad places in the streets resulting from the work of plumbers. He was also instructed to get the location of all bad places in the stone curbing in various parts of town, and to buy 85 more loads of "gravel" from Mr. Terrell, for use on the streets.

President Ingram, of the Nashville Paving and Roofing company, informed the board that his company would begin the work of making repairs on Broadway in a few days.

Baby 18 Months Old, a Sweatshop Toller.

(New York Telegram to the Philadelphia Inquirer.)

Dr. A. S. Daniel, of the New York Infirmary for Women, told the members of the Woman's Municipal League today that an eighteen-months-old child had been found employed in a sweatshop, and that the little one's worth was calculated by its mother at fifty cents a week.

Dr. Daniel addressed the league on "Illegal Sweatshop Work." She said that children as young as four years of age were regularly employed in some of the thirty-three trades which the law allows to go on in tenement rooms.

"Some time ago a child of one and one-half years was brought to the New York Infirmary for treatment," said Dr. Daniel. "After some days the child's mother came for her and took her away. At that time the mother said that she needed the child's services in following her trade of passementerie making, in her tenement home. She said that the child's services were worth fifty cents a week to her."

which Mrs. Merlow is now rearing on a bottle. The dog soon became ill, and a surgeon was sent for. This was Dr. Armstrong, and he declared after an examination that the dog was likely to die. He said that if the dog was a human being he would say she was suffering from appendicitis.

As the animal is valued at $2,000, Mr. Merlow insisted that another surgeon be called in. Dr. Elk was summoned, and the operation decided upon. The surgeons said the operation was successful and that the dog would recover.

Both surgeons said that to the best of their knowledge no similar operation ever had been performed on a dog in this country. Dr. Elk said that he intended to write a report of the case to read before the American Society of Veterinary Surgeons in Reading, Pa., in April.

Nervousness

Read My Offer—A Full Dollar's Worth of My Remedy Free to Try—Without Hesitation, or Risk, or Pains—
Is in This

Nervousness, restlessness, irritability—all are the outward signs of inward nerve disturbance. The fault is not with the nerves which give you warning not to feel, to walk, to talk, to think, to see, that the INWARD NERVES, the automatic power nerves—these are the nerves that work wear out and worry breaks down.

I have not room here to explain how these tender, tiny nerves control and operate the stomach, the heart, the kidneys, the liver. How excesses and strains and overindulgences destroy their delicate fibers. How, through a kind of sympathy, weakness in one center is conveyed to each of the other centers. How this same kind of sympathy produces the outward signs of nervousness which should warn us of the trouble within. I have not room to explain how these nerves may be re-acted and strengthened and vitalized and made well by a remedy I spent thirty years in perfecting—now known by druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. I have not room to explain how this remedy, by removing the cause, puts a certain end to all forms of nervousness, inward and outward, including restlessness, irritability, sleeplessness, irritability. All of these things are fully explained in the book I will send you when you write.

To more than a million homes your remedy is known, and tested upon. Yet you may not have heard of it. So I make this offer to you, a stranger, that every possible excuse for doubt may be removed. Send no money—make no promise—take no risk. Simply write and ask. If you have never tried my remedy, I will send you an order on your druggist for a full dollar bottle—not a sample, but the regular standard bottle he keeps constantly on his shelves. The druggist will require no conditions. He will accept my order as cheerfully as though your dollar lay before him. He will send the bill to me.

Will you accept this opportunity to learn at MY EXPENSE ABSOLUTELY how to be rid forever of all forms of nervousness—to be rid not only of the trouble, but of the very cause which produced it?

For a free order for a full dollar bottle you must address Dr. Shoop, Box 15, 171, Euclid, Wis. State which book you want.

TO WATER ENGINES

The I. C. Will Install a New Service at the Depot.

The I. C. will immediately install a complete watering service at the local passenger depot. This decision was reached through the inadequate watering facilities now in service. The fast trains which stop here but a few moments have to be watered and there are but a few plugs with which to work. These are small and often trains are delayed. To avoid any inconvenience from this source, the road decided to put in a complete system on a larger scale, and the new piping will be four times the size of the present. The material is expected here within a few days, and Mr. Clarence Knowles, superintendent of water works of the Louisville division of the road, will put a force of men to work on the job immediately.

NEW METHOD.

Boilers Are Now Cleaned With Hot Water.

The "hot well" at the local I. C. shops has been completed and is now in use. All boilers washed in the local shops being washed with hot water instead of cold as heretofore.

This improvement has been under course of construction for some time and is invaluable as a time saver in the I. C. When boilers are washed with cold water the lines are chilled and often contract and spring leaks, and moreover it requires longer to get the boiler hot. Warm water will enable the lines to remain warm and facilitate raising steam.

The hot water well is a well located between the blacksmith and machine shops and the exhaust from the steam hammers is run into it, keeping the water at a high temperature, nearly that of boiling.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH IN LOUISVILLE

New York Woman Crushed By Secret Sorrow.

Her Husband Said to Have Married
Maude Lambert, of the Florodora Opera Company.

"COUNTY CHAIRMAN" ROMANCE.

Two or three stage people well known to Paducah theatre-goers are conspicuous figures in a couple of interesting events of recent occurrence. One is Miss Maude Lambert, who was seen here as "Dolores" in the first presentation of Florodora at the Kentucky theatre. It appears the talented young actress' mother claims she is married to F. J. Quinby, of New York, and the latter's friends claim that she is not.

The controversy arose over the sudden death of Mrs. Quinby at the Louisville Hotel. She and her little son arrived there from New York about Christmas, and had been there ever since. The woman seemed to have a great sorrow, and her husband was never there. Suddenly night before last she died, after telling the doctor that she had a great trouble that was crushing her. She is said to have been a most beautiful young woman, and no one seemed to understand why she was there alone.

The rest is told in yesterday's Courier-Journal, as follows:

When Mrs. C. E. Lambert, of 260 West Fifty-seventh street, New York, was seen last night by a correspondent, she said:

"My daughter, Maude, who is with the Florodora company, now playing in Philadelphia, was married to F. J. Quinby, a publisher at 426 Fifth avenue, several weeks ago. The woman who died in Louisville was not my daughter. My son-in-law Quinby never told me that he had been married before. I know nothing whatever of the woman in Louisville."

C. T. Hainard, manager of the F. J. Quinby company, was seen at the Hotel Duclaire, in New York, last night and said: "F. J. Quinby was never married to Maude Lambert or any other actress. His wife, who died last night in Louisville, was Miss Adelaide Ormsby, of Hartford, Conn. She came of an old and well-to-do Hartford family. Her father is in business in New York, but retains his home in Hartford. Mrs. Quinby was twenty-seven years old, and the body will be taken to Hartford for burial, and Mr. Quinby has been on the road for the company, and today he is in Philadelphia. I got him there by telephone this morning, informed him of his wife's death, and he started for Louisville at once."

A few hours before her death, Mrs. Quinby received a letter from a New York actress, who signed her name "Don." The letter recited the fact that the writer expected to get an excellent position and was of little consequence. A number of clippings concerning New York theatricals, were enclosed. Mrs. Quinby. It is said, attended nearly every theatrical performance that was presented in Louisville while she was here. She went by herself.

The other event concerns George Thatcher, who played the dandy in "The County Chairman," here recently, and Zenaida Williams, who played the milliner, who always wanted to "Shiloh." The Chicago Tribune says:

George Thatcher, the Sassaparilla Livingston of "The County Chairman," and Zenaida Williams, who enacts the role of Lorenz Watkins, the village milliner in that comedy, were married yesterday afternoon at the Sherman house by Justice Underwood. Both appeared later in the evening performance, having delayed their honeymoon until the close of the company's season next week.

Thatcher's first wife died last October in New York, leaving her husband $50,000. He has one daughter. The bride is the widow of Odell Williams, a comedian, who died last year.

Thatcher, who is 50 years old, is well known as a former member of the Thatcher, Primrose and West minstrel company.

The Cincinnati Post of yesterday gives the following story of the coming disbanding of the Murray & Mack show, which was here last week. It is beginning to look as if these well known comedians are nearing this "gag" as a press boom, as they "light" and threaten to break up every few months. Anyway, they are both well known here, and this is what the Post says of them:

Because of a bitter quarrel between the principals, the theatrical combination known as Murray and Mack, now at the Walnut St. theater in "An English Daisy," will be dissolved Saturday night and the show disbanded. Notices have been posted on the stage offering members of the troupe a rate to New York.

For nearly 15 years Charles A. Murray and Ollie Mack have been partners on the stage in touring musical farce comedy. Their parting is as much a surprise as the split-up in the Weber-Fleisch or the old-time Robinson-Crane combinations.

It is given out that business disagreements caused the break between Murray and Mack, but those on the inside say the real cause is more romantic. However, details of their trouble are being kept quiet.

The storm has been brewing for weeks. But the climax came four weeks ago, when they were playing at Decatur, Ill.

Hot words were exchanged, and Murray and Mack have not been on speaking terms since. The result is the decision to part at the end of their Cincinnati engagement. The original intention had been to continue till the end of the present season—in fact, nothing was said when the season began about separating, as next September would be the fifteenth anniversary of their partnership, and it looked good to continue for years.

Murray is a Cincinnati man and started in life as a newsboy selling Posters. Until he went on the stage his home was on West Seventh St., between Central avenue and John St. His people now live in Muncie, Ind., and he expects to spend the time with them till next season, when he will star in a musical farce comedy, "The Prince From Princeton," by

Jos. N. Gates, author of "The Baggage Check" and "A Railroad Ticket."

Mack will probably appear next season in "Around the Town," a musical farce, by Murray and Eugene Walters.

"I was satisfied to let things continue as they are—the partnership was good enough for me," said Murray Wednesday, "but Mack has the individual starrings in his honor. He wants to shine all by himself so we have arranged to part."

"As to our quarrel, well, that was a personal matter."

STILL AT LARGE.

Bank Robbers Have Never Been Heard From By Officers.

The burglars and safe blowers who made a haul of over $1,000 at the Bank of Union Sunday night are doubtless gone for good. None of the clues or theories have led to any arrests, and the first theory, that the robbers put as much distance as possible between themselves and the scene of their operations seem to find the most favor. It is plain that they were going to get out of the neighborhood as soon as possible, which could not be by walking, and they consequently must have taken a train, as it was an easy matter to do, considering the fact that they had about nine hours start.

A farmer in the Clark's River section thinks that possibly one of the robbers was a woman or a man attired as a woman, as he saw three suspicious looking people Sunday night in the Clark's River section.

The insurance company yesterday paid to the bank $1,600, and it is hardly expected that the robbers will ever be heard of.

HOW TO BUILD UP A CITY.

The Natchez, Miss., correspondent of the Manufacturers' Record tells how anxious they are there for new industries, and some of the things they are offering as inducements. Here is what he says:

"The Natchez Promotive League was organized January 5, and as a result of its initiation the board of aldermen of the city has provided for an exemption from taxation for 10 years of industries established before January 1, 1910. We want new industries here and in this vicinity. We want new people in this neighborhood. The Promotive League aims to bring them here. And in furtherance of that aim it will issue a pamphlet entitled 'Natchez in a Nutshell,' presenting tersely facts about the city and its vicinity of interest to investors and home-seekers. The city, which is entered by three railroads, has two cotton mills, two cottonseed-oil mills, a sash and blind factory, an ice factory, a delinier, a compress and a number of small enterprises. It has canals, artesian water, a sewerage system, a gas plant and an electric-light system. Referring to the advertisement given the city by the exemption ordinance of the board of aldermen the Natchez Democrat says:

"That it was a necessary and important ordinance is demonstrated by the readiness with which the Manufacturers' Record has taken it up, and the hearty endorsement that is contained in the eight words—'a safe and sane method of encouraging manufacturing' in Natchez. The fact that this ordinance has been passed by the board of mayor and aldermen has been advertised to the four points of the compass. That advertisement has been supplemented by the Manufacturers' Record, the strongest and best industrial, railroad, and financial newspaper in the world. It is circulated in all the foreign countries.

"Here we have a most complimentary notice of our city sent to all parts of the world. It is a notice which shows that Natchez is willing to make every concession to manufacturers that may be regarded as being within the pale of 'safe and sane methods.'"

It is the usual way. Everything is put off. After wasting the winter doing nothing, the general council decided to pave Third street. The city engineer urged all the time that some sort of conclusion be reached in regard to the streets to be improved, so he could get the preliminary work done, but no attention was paid to him. He now reports that it will be the last of next week, and possibly the following week, before he will have the plans and specifications for the street done. These have to be finished before any contractor can bid on the work, and the work has to be advertised at least ten days before bids can be considered. It is consequently seen that it may be as late as May or June before a clod is turned in the Third street improvement—and it is the first to be taken up. The ordinances have not even been passed for other streets.

The city is to buy 85 more loads of gravel. It is hoped that it will not resemble the stuff being dumped near Fourth and Madison streets, and perhaps equally as profuse elsewhere. This "gravel" seems to be about 75 per cent. sand and mud, and the rest pebbles. The poor taxpayer has to pay for the mud and sand, and then often has to pay for having it scraped out of the gutters and hauled away, or has it blown all over his house and into his eyes in dry weather. It is not known what becomes of the gravel. There is hardly ever enough of it to be missed.

Democrats who have any regard for their county should not take part in the county primary. It is not certain that good men will be nominated, and what every good citizen should not do is to handicap himself so he cannot vote for the best material possible. A primary is not an election, and the indications are that the best men for the various county offices will not be put up by the democrats.

There is no doubt that Russia is being whipped, but look how much more of her there is. She has nearly four hundred million population, while Japan has less than fifty million. We shouldn't be too enthusiastic for Japan yet while, for the war will ultimately be decided on a basis of resources, and not of individual bravery or ability.

When a newspaper or anything else begins showing up the shortcomings of a city with a view to reform and improvement, the men who are responsible immediately begin to howl about "hurting the town." This has always been the case, and the men who howl worst are those who are most to blame.

Owensboro is going to impeach the mayor for neglect of duty. He is one of those kind of executives who never know what's going on in their own town.

It seems that it is easier to put things in jail than it is to put him out of the democratic executive committee. He is still in both, at any rate.

Why not get busy on the street improvement work? Delay is what proved such an obstacle last year. Let's don't repeat the performance.

The state fair appropriation was legal, after all. It makes another good state graft available hereafter.

"YELLOW."

(Louisville Herald.)

The complaint that has been so freely made against "yellow journalism" is familiar. But, it is worth while to inquire whether that peculiar streak of development which is called "yellow" in journalism has not made its appearance in other professions and other businesses. Even in the ordinary mercantile business there has been a notable infusion of suggestiveness, sometimes amounting to positive impropriety if not indecency, in advertisements. The nudities and exposures of objectionable theater advertising are not worse than the pages of magazines and papers at times.

There was a time when the ailments and treatment of patients by physicians were considered to be hidden behind inviolable confidence. Nowadays the ailments and prospects of publicly known patients are talked about as openly and given to the press as freely as the intimate affairs of actresses which are used for advertising purposes. No permission is asked of the family in many cases; indeed, the privacy of the family is not considered, but the curiosity of the public and the association of the physician's name with an important "case," as an advertising opportunity, are taken to justify publicity. It may be said that the "yellow" press pushed this custom into vogue, but the press could not have succeeded without the "yellow" physician.

During the past week the private details of the affliction of President Harper, of the University of Chicago, go, have been as freely given to the press as if they were preparations of a pugilist for a prize fight. The physicians have not hesitated to give the most confidential facts to reporters. Responsibility has been avoided by the usual diplomatic means, but, nevertheless, from day to day the public has been admitted to President Harper's sick room and even to the operating table whereon he was stretched for his life. President Harper is a man of national importance, but the violation of the rules of professional confidence cannot be more successfully defended in his case than it can be by "yellow" papers when they offend against privacy in other directions.

Lawyers are now prone to practice their profession as vigorously in the newspapers as in the courts. It must be admitted that they do not offend in this particular as much as physicians. But it is a growing tendency, and in the east there seems to be no limit to the freedom with which a lawyer can discuss his client's affairs with reporters or the affairs of the other side. District Attorney Jerome carried the vogue to its greatest extreme in writing an open letter to a woman and publishing it in the newspapers after threatening the woman with it if she did not testify in a grand jury case.

The "yellow" journal has its backing in "yellow" society, with its many forms of "yellow" development. Dignity has given place to directness in almost every walk of life. It may be wrong, or it may be the beginning of a new code of conduct and responsibility that will have its compensations for the old-fashioned qualities set aside by consent. But let it be remembered that "yellow journalism" is not to be abused fairly while the other "yellows" are tolerated.

Whistling Chorus in Macon Church.

(Macon, Ga., News.)
A large congregation heard the Rev. J. H. Phillips at the Second Baptist church in his sermon to young men and the services were of unusual interest. A special programme was arranged for the occasion instead of the usual Sunday night service and a large throng was attracted to the church by the announcement that the "Whistling Chorus," something new and novel in the church services, would be one of the numbers.

The "Whistling Chorus" is composed of some of the leading young men of the church and the songs whistled by them last night were highly enjoyed by the congregation. This is the first church in Macon to organize a whistling chorus and it is believed that it will prove a success. Now that it is introduced in this church the other churches of the city will likely add this attractive feature to their musical program.

A FAST I. C. TRAIN MAY START HERE

Reported Road Contemplates
An Important Change.

Fast Chicago Flyer May Start Out of Paducah Instead of Cairo in Short Time.

NEW TIME CARD EXPECTED

If present rumors are confirmed Paducah will soon be the terminal for one of the most important passenger trains on the northern division of the I. C. road.

It is authoritatively stated that the officials at Chicago are favorably considering the matter of changing the starting place of train No. 8, the fast Cairo and Chicago flyer which now leaves Cairo at 8:40 o'clock p. m., and start the train out of Paducah.

This will bring the St. Louis and Chicago sleepers to Paducah. On account of the travel done out of Paducah the move is considered one towards economy because the Cairo accommodation which leaves here at 7 o'clock, makes direct connections, and every person traveling out of Paducah for St. Louis or Chicago has to telegraph to Cairo for a sleeper berth.

It is known that this move has been considered for sometime, and when the new spring time card is made out, it is expected this will be one of the principal changes affecting Paducah.

The Cairo extension will be improved this year by more ballasting, the ballasting started last year not having been completed. This will enable trains to make better time.

DEGRAW THE CHOICE.

Nominated as Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General.

Washington, Mar. 16.—The President has sent to the senate the nomination of Peter V. DeGraw as fourth assistant postmaster-general.

Mr. DeGraw is a native of New Jersey, but has spent most of his life in New York, Philadelphia and Washington. He has had great experience in newspaper work, in the telegraph business, as manager of large corporate interests and recently as the eastern representative of the public department of the Louisiana Exposition. As a young man Mr. DeGraw was a telegraph operator, and as such he had the distinction of being one of the most rapid Morse senders of his time. He began newspaper work with the old New York Associated Press.

Postmaster-General Cortelyou said today that he had been largely influenced in selecting Mr. DeGraw for the post by his extensive acquaintance with public men and his knowledge of public business methods.

New York, March 16.—Six persons were injured in a rear end collision between two Ninth avenue elevated trains this morning.

Both trains were crowded and passengers were hurled to the floor by the shock.

A panic followed and many were trampled by the frightened crowd. A green motorman is said to be responsible for the accident.

STORE BURNED.

Explosion of Lamp Causes Big Blaze in Graves County.

The new dry goods store of R. H. Jeffery at Colliersville, Graves county, burned about 12 o'clock last night. It is supposed the blaze originated from a lamp explosion. A lamp had been left burning in the store and it is supposed that it exploded. The destruction of the place is complete, it being impossible to save anything, and the loss is about covered by insurance.

NOT POISONED

IS NOW THE OPINION ABOUT
MRS. STANFORD.

Experts and Detectives Agree That There Was No Crime Committed.

Honolulu, March 16.—Dr. Jordan, president of Stanford university and Timothy J. Hopkins of the board of trustees of the university, have signed a joint statement regarding the Stanford case which they left with Judge Smith with instruction to make public after they sailed on the Alameda for San Francisco. The statement says that in their judgment, after careful consideration of all the facts they are fully convinced that the death of Mrs. Stanford was not due to strychnine poisoning, nor to intentional wrong-doing on the part of any one.

The detectives are of the opinion that the verdict of the coroner's jury to the effect that Mrs. Stanford died by strychnine poisoning was not justified by the evidence presented.

High Sheriff Honey, in an interview, accuses the San Francisco detectives of an intention to discredit the work of his department. He says he supposes they will endeavor to make it appear that Mrs. Stanford died from natural causes.

The evidence up to date, it is pointed out, indicates that Mrs. Stanford took one-seventh of a grain of strychnine, this quantity being combined in the capsule and the bicarbonate of soda, and that both the capsule and the soda would be required to cause a fatal result, and that both would be fatal only to a person of Mrs. Stanford's age.

APPELATE WINS.

American Turf Association May Claim Another Point in Latona Track.

Frankfort, Ky., March 16.—The Kentucky court of appeals has affirmed the judgment of the Kenton circuit court in the Latona race track case of E. E. Applegate of Louisville against George B. Perkins of New York, and under the decision the track goes into the control of the American Turf Association. Had Perkins won it would have gone to the Western Jockey club. The track was sold by Perkins to Applegate and others for $200,000, of which $65,000 was still due when Perkins took advantage of the contract between the parties to sell 800 shares of the stock which were held as collateral security. The question was as to the legality of the sale, provided the sale should be "judicial." The court here says there was no proper sale and that Applegate shall be given the stock on payment of the amount due on it. The mandate of the court will not be issued for more than a month.

MAN EATING DONKEY.

Grinded Infant in Its Teeth and Dashed Its Brains Out.

Fort Worth, Tex., March 16.—A special from Paris, Tex., says:

This afternoon Mrs. May Helms, who lives near Paris, while walking across the barnyard carrying her three-months old daughter in her arms, was attacked by a donkey which was running loose in the enclosure. The animal grabbed the infant in its teeth and ran across the lot, shaking it fiercely. The mother followed and succeeded in securing the baby, but before she could leave the lot the donkey again secured it and completed its fearful work, the baby's brains being crushed out and its bones broken by the blows it received.

Mrs. Helms finally secured the body. She was badly injured, but managed to get outside the lot. The husband returning from work, took a gun and killed the donkey.

Police Court.

Greathouse Cheatham, a big, black negro alleged to have cut Hester Stovall in the left cheek with a knife or razor, was arraigned in police court this morning on two charges of malicious cutting and carrying concealed weapons.

Cheatham claimed to have been staying at the Stovall woman's house and was driven away. He explained that she had been keeping brass knuckles, a knife and a razor for him and he took them to another house but the woman refused to keep them, which accounted for his having the weapons in his possession. As to the cutting business, he claimed the woman fell down.

Judge Sanders held the case open until he could become convinced about the wound, summoning a physician to examine it and see if it was made with a sharp instrument. The case of carryng concealed weapons was also left open.

MAY BE BUTLER.

Detective Moore Goes to Greenville to Identify a Prisoner.

Detective T. J. Moore left today at noon for Greenville, Ky., to identify a man under arrest there supposed to be James Butler, wanted here for forgery.

It will be remembered that several days ago Butler went to the Sherrill-Russell Lumber Co. and ordered a bill of lumber amounting to $340, giving a check on Judge Crumbaugh, of Eldysville, for nearly $500. The bill was receipted and Butler given change. He skipped out and has not been heard from since, but the police have been after him for forgery, the check proving worthless.

The authorities at Greenville think they have the right man as he answers the description and if he does prove to be Butler will be brought back to Paducah tonight.

The man mentioned in the following dispatch was formerly a resident of Paducah, and has a number of friends here who will doubtless remember him. He is a brother to Dr. Pierce, a prominent physician who died in Paducah several years ago:

St. Louis, Mo., March 14.—H. Clay Pierce has organized his estate into a trust, the first corporation of the kind in Missouri, and possibly in the country, formed primarily to safeguard the interests of the organizer's heirs. It is capitalized for $5,000,000, and Mr. Pierce holds all of the 50,000 shares of stock except four. One share each is held by Clay Arthur Pierce, son; Eben Richards, son-in-law; Stephen Johnson, brother-in-law, and John D. Johnson, personal attorney of Mr. Pierce.

CONFEDERATES TO ESCORT PRESIDENTWhen He Visits Louisville on Next April 4th.Enthusiastic Meeting of Louisville
Veterans at Which Good Speeches
Were Made.

WILL BE A GREAT EVENT

Louisville, Ky., March 16.—By a unanimous vote the Confederate Association of Kentucky (George H. Eastin Camp, 803, United Confederate Veterans) decided to accept the invitation of the committee of arrangements to act as an escort to President Theodore Roosevelt on the occasion of his visit to Louisville April 4.

President John H. Leathers referred to the visit of the president of the United States and called on Thos. W. Bullitt to speak upon that subject. Mr. Bullitt told happily of the visit to Louisville 31 years ago of President R. B. Hayes, on which occasion the Confederate veterans marched by his carriage as an escort from the 14th street depot to the Galt house, where President Hayes, Secretary of Navy R. W. Thompson and others made congratulatory addresses. He suggested that a similar service be shown to President Roosevelt. He urged that there be perfect unanimity in this effort.

W. O. Harris followed with an effective speech and avowed that the Confederate camp of Louisville act as escort for President Roosevelt. W. J. Davis amended that all Confederates in the city and state be invited to join in this duty. After remarks by Thomas D. Osborne, John H. Welton and others this was adopted by a rising vote and applause. President Leathers appointed Capt. John H. Welton as marshal of the day with power to appoint assistant marshals.

NOT SETTLED.

Some Want to Speak and Others Do Not, It Seems.

It is stated that the Democratic county committee will decline to have anything to say relative to speakings being held by the candidates in the city. The chairman states that the committee has nothing to do with it. There are a number of prominent Democrats working to stage off a list of appointments in the city, claiming that the people will be disgusted and it will end by hundreds not voting for any of the candidates. An effort is to be made to have the joint speaking end with the last county date, but it may not be successful, as some of the candidates who think they can make good speeches are very anxious to keep up the meetings. Those who can't would welcome any agreement tending to bring the meetings to a close.

The sub-committee of the Democratic county committee meets tonight to make a report on the primary arrangements, etc.

MARINE HOSPITAL.

Cairo Institution to Be Enlarged and Improved.

United States Architect Pens will arrive in a few days to confer with United States Surgeon G. M. Gutierrez regarding improvements that are to be made at the United States marine hospital this spring, says the Cairo Bulletin.

Congress has appropriated $5,000 for improvements here and Mr. Pens and Dr. Gutierrez will prepare plans for an addition to the brick building. Other improvements will include enlarged quarters for the attendants, store rooms and a laboratory.

The work will probably be done this spring or early this coming summer.

All marine patients from Paducah are sent to the Cairo hospital, the nearest other one being at Evansville. The hospital was located in Paducah years ago, but was burned during the war. Dr. Frank Boyd is the local marine surgeon.

CHAPTER II.

WHEN the bird part amid ships the door of the saloon heaved up in the center with a mighty crash of rending woodwork and iron. Men and women, too stupefied to sob out a prayer, were pitched headlong into chaos. Iris, torn from the terrified grasp of her maid, fell through a corridor and would have gone down with the ship had not a sailor, clinging to a companion ladder, caught her as she whirled along the steep slope of the deck.

He did not know what had happened. With the instinct of self preservation he seized the nearest support when the vessel struck. It was the mere impulse of ready helpfulness that caused him to stretch out his left arm and clasp the girl's waist as she tumbled past. By the chance they were on the port side, and the ship, after pausing for one awful second, fell over to starboard.

The man was not prepared for this second gyrations. Even as the stairway caught he lost his balance; they were both thrown violently through the open hatchway and swept off into the boiling surf. Under such conditions thought itself was impossible. A series of impressions, a number of fantastic pictures, were received by the unimpaired faculties and afterward painfully sorted out by the memory. Fear, anguish, unnumbered none of these could exist. All he knew was that the lifeless form of a woman for Iris had happily faded—must be held until death itself wrenched her from him. Then there came the heaving plunge into the swirling sea, followed by an indefinite period of gasping oblivion. Something that felt like a moving rock came up beneath his feet. He was driven clear out of the water and seemed to recognize a familiar object rising amid bright light and heat. It was the plume of a pillar, served to a portion of the deck which came away from the chart house, and was rent from the upper framework by contact with the reef. He seized this unlooked for support with his disengaged hand.

A unnumbered dance—he thought it was the captain—stretched out an unavailing arm to clasp the queer raft which supported the sailor and the girl, but a jealous wave rose under the platform with deadly energy and turned it completely over, hurling the man with his inanimate burden into the depths. He rose, fighting madly for his life. Now surely he was doomed. But again, as if human existence depended on might more serious than the spinning of a coin, his knees rested on the same few stanch tinders, now the ceiling of the music room, and he was given a brief respite. His greatest difficulty was to get his breath, so dense was the spray through which he was driven. Even in that terrible moment he kept his senses. The girl, utterly unconscious, showed by the convulsive heaving of her breast that she was choking. With a wild effort he swung her head round to shield her from the flying sand with his own form.

The tiny air space thus provided gave her some relief, and in that instant the sailor seemed to recognize her. He was not remotely capable of a definite idea. Just as he vaguely realized the identity of the woman in his arms the maddening support on which he rested toppled over. Again he renewed the unequal contest. A strong, resolute man and a typhoon sea wrestled for supremacy.

This time his feet plunged against something gratefully solid. He was dashed forward, still battling with the raging turmoil of water, and a second time he felt the same firm yet smooth surface. His dormant faculties awoke. It was sand. With frenzied desperation, buoyed now by the inspiring hope of safety, he fought his way onward like a man.

Often he fell. Three times did the backward try to drag him to the bottom, but he staggered blindly on, on, until even the tearing gale ceased to be laden with the suffocating foam, and his faltering feet sank in deep soft white sand.

Then he fell, not to rise again. With a last weak flicker of exhausted strength he drew the girl closely to him, and the two lay clasped tightly together, heedless now of all things.

How long the man remained prostrate he could only guess subsequently. The sailor struck soon after daybreak, and the sailor awoke to a hazy consciousness of his surroundings to find a shaft of sunshine filtering through the clouds banked up in the east. The gale was already passing away. Although the wild still whistled with shrill violence, it was more blustering than threatening. The sea, too, though running very high, had retreated many yards from the spot where he had finally dropped, and its surface was no longer scorched with volcanic fury.

Slowly and painfully he raised himself to a sitting posture, for he was bruised and stiff. With his first movement he became violently ill. He had swallowed much salt water, and it was not until the spasm of sickness had passed that he thought of the girl.

"She cannot be dead," he himself murmured, feebly trying to lift her. "Surely Providence would not desert her after such an escape. What a weak beggar I must be to give in at the last moment! I am sure she was living when we got ashore. What on earth can I do to revive her?"

Forgetful of his own aching limbs in this newborn anxiety, he sank on one knee and gently pillowed Iris' head and shoulders on the other. Her eyes were closed, her lips and teeth firmly set—a fact to which she undoubtedly owed her life, else she would have been suffocated—and the pillar of her skin seemed to be that terrible bloodless line which indicates death. The stern lines in the man's face relaxed, and something blurred his vision. He was weak from exhaustion and want of food. For the moment his emotions were easily aroused.

"Oh, it is pitiful!" he almost whimpered. "It cannot be!"

With a gesture of despair he drew the sleeve of his thick jersey across his eyes to clear them from the gathering mist. "Then he tremblingly endeavored to open the neck of her dress. He was startled to find the girl's eyes wide open and surveying him with shadowy alarm. She was quite conscious.

He staggered blindly on.

"Thank God!" he cried hoarsely. "You are alive!"

Her color came back with remarkable rapidity. She tried to assume a sitting posture, and instinctively her hands traveled to her disarranged costume.

"How ridiculous!" she said, with a little note of misgiving in her voice, which sounded curiously hollow. But her brave spirit could not yet command her enfeebled frame. She was perforce compelled to sink back to the support of his knee and arm.

"Do you think you could be quiet until I try to find some water?" he gasped anxiously.

She nodded a childlike acquiescence, and her eyelids fell. It was only that her eyes smarted dreadfully from the salt water, but the sailor was sure that this was a premonition of a lapse to unconsciousness.

"Please try not to faint again," he said. "Don't you think I had better loosen those things? You can breathe more easily."

A ghost of a smile flickered on her lips. "No—no," she murmured. "My eyes hurt me—that is all. Is there any water?"

MR. L. C. GARRETT

May Land That Memphis Job—Now in Memphis.

L. C. Garrett, of Paducah, has been in the city several days and left last night for Memphis, where he is to become cashier of the new Bankers' Bank and Trust company, which will begin business about May 1, says yesterday's Courier-Journal.

"I have my own method of judging a city," said Mr. Garrett last evening. "When I wish to get a line on the condition of a city, I go out on the main thoroughfares on a bright day and look at the carriages. Fine equipages represent surplus money. Every handsome turnout that you see means money to spare. When the streets of a city are thick with carriages you may be sure that the city has wealth. A man must have extra money in order to keep up a fine carriage. I have used that method for a number of years and found it effective."

I have wished that I had known of it in my husband's lifetime." 50c. Sold by DuBois, Kolb & Co., Paducah, Ky.

SCHOOL BOARD

WILL HOLD A CALLED SESSION TONIGHT.

To Discuss the New Schools in Rowlandtown and Mechanicsburg.

The school board will meet tonight in special session for the purpose of discussing the plans and specifications of the new school to be built this summer in Mechanicsburg.

The board has already purchased the lot and selected a location for the building on the lot, and on account of the great amount of building to be done this spring, want to get in ahead and have the school built without delay. It will require a few weeks for advertising, letting the contract, etc., and the board wants to complete this preliminary work first.

It is probable that the Rowlandtown school will also be discussed, the board seeming inclined to get to work on this school too, although the site has not been bought or located.

The board will further act on other pressing matters which may be brought before it.

GREEN SNAKE

Found in the Water Cooler at Princeton.

Illinois Central employees at Princeton, Ky., have sworn off drinking water and the sales of beer and soft drinks has more than tripled since the pledge was signed.

It all came about through the discovery of a small snake in the water cooler at the depot yesterday morning. A yard clerk went to the cooler which had been filled not thirty minutes before from a well located near the depot, to procure a drink of water. He turned on the cock and out came a cup full of clear, cool water. The clerk raised the cup to his lips and gazing down into the cup saw a small, green writhing object.

With a yell he dropped the cup, thinking he "had 'em again," but he soon saw he was not suffering from nervous excitement, but really saw a snake.

The reptile was about three inches long and very green. The clerk took it up and preserved it in a bottle. The snake was pumped out of the well, it is presumed, into the water cooler.

ENLARGE TUNNELS.

The Work is Now Being Pushed On the Louisville Division.

The work of cutting out tunnels between Paducah and Louisville is progressing nicely, and within a few weeks the work on Montgomery tunnel will be complete.

The laborers will next be sent to Keyser's tunnel, just this side of Louisville. Some tunnels are too small to permit passage of the larger type of locomotives, and the road contemplates using a large type of locomotives for freight service in the future and is preparing for it.

Use Shoffner's Sure Cure

The Great Tonic and Blood Purifier—Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

It is a trite and true saying that the "blood is the life." Now where does the blood come from? Everybody knows, or should know, that it comes from the nutritive elements extracted by the stomach from the food we eat. If the digestive organs do not perform their functions by reason of disease germs, there is no nutrition extracted, and the food might better be thrown in the dump to decay and breed germs in the open air than to remain in the stomach and become a rotten, putrid mass, as it naturally does if there is no digestion. No disease germ can live and find lodgment in a human body that uses the Shoffner's Sure Cure. Price $1.00.

What People Say of the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

PADUCAH, Ky., March 5, 1903.
To Whom It May Concern:
This is to certify that I was a sufferer with indigestion for five years and could get no relief until I bought one bottle of Shoffner's Sure Cure, and it helped me so much that I took six bottles, and it has cured me sound and well, thanks to the Shoffner's Sure Cure.
MRS. JOHN SMEDLEY, 806 S. Third St.

This is to certify that I believe the Shoffner's Sure Cure saved my life. I was not able to sit up in bed when I began taking the remedy. I had such a severe cough I thought I had consumption. Physicians had given me up to die. After taking one bottle I was able to sit up some. After using five bottles I was fully restored to health. I cannot say enough in favor of this wonderful remedy for indigestion.

MRS. SUE GRAHAM, Moscow, Ky.

If after using one bottle according to directions you are not benefited, your money will be refunded.

SPORTY MARQUIS

Went to Monte Carlo to Break the Bank and Died.

Monte Carlo, Mar. 16.—The Marquis of Angelsey who came to Monte Carlo several weeks ago with a system of his own invention with which he hoped to break the bank, but who was taken seriously ill in the early part of this month, is dead. The cause of his death was consumption. He had always been a sufferer from pulmonary trouble, which, in late years, developed into tuberculosis.

His wife arrived a few days before his death and was reconciled with her husband on his death bed. This was remarkable in view of the fact that she had divorced him less than a year after their marriage. She was the Hon. Lillian Chetwynd, the reigning London beauty of her day.

Since the news of the nobleman's illness, his creditors have flocked to this place to seize upon his personal effects upon his death. They have arrived from all parts of Europe, where the young man's extravagances made him notorious. Some of the larger creditors have kept at his heels since the bankruptcy proceedings were brought against him a year ago. His death will mean the loss of great fortunes to many, as the family estates are entailed, and they could only hope to be paid from his income, which had been turned over to their trustees.

PROMINENT MAN.

H. B. Walker Dies at His Home in Hickman.

Hickman, Ky., Mar. 16.—H. B. Walker died of pneumonia, aged 78 years. At one time he was a prominent figure in politics, representing Fulton county in the legislature, and held the offices of sheriff and county judge. He was a Confederate Veteran, serving under Forrest. His wife and three children survive him.

TO STOP LOAFING.

Officers Will Break Up This Very Unnecessary Habit.

Officers on the Broadway beat have received positive instructions to enforce the "move on" ordinance and no loiterers are allowed to stand longer than a few minutes, at Fourth and Broadway particularly. The boisterous crowds at this place have been a source of much annoyance to the general public and many complaints were lodged with the authorities.

A resident of the South Side stated this morning that the police might also turn their attention to coal and wood haulers who drive on the pavements. There is one place on South Fifth street, beginning at Clark and extending up Fifth nearly half a square, where coal wagons have driven on the pavements and cut deep ruts in the pavement. This is dangerous at night and may throw pedestrians down, causing a dangerous suit against the city. The resident stated that he had complained many times, but to no avail.
